

Fraser Stryker PC LLO Chooses Keno Kozie for IT Managed Services

CHICAGO – [February 22, 2010] – Keno Kozie, a leading provider of information technology design, service and support to law firms and legal departments, announces that the law firm of Fraser Stryker PC LLO has selected the company to provide managed IT services. Fraser Stryker outsourced the majority of its IT network functionality to Keno Kozie, including 24x7 system monitoring, routine system maintenance, risk assessment, evaluation, and more.

“We selected Keno Kozie for managed services because of their significant understanding of the law firm environment,” said Michelle Krapfl, executive director of Fraser Stryker. “They were a natural fit because they can meet our day-to-day needs and provide expertise for our long-term strategic IT goals.”

Before Keno Kozie began the engagement, they first ran an initial review and certification of Fraser Stryker’s systems. Keno Kozie reviewed the firm’s entire IT environment, identified and addressed issues, set up monitoring and recommended future changes and upgrades. Keno Kozie provides the executive leadership at Fraser Stryker with daily and weekly status reports, strategic planning and assistance with budgeting.

Based in Omaha, Nebraska, Fraser Stryker has 100 system users, 45 of which are attorneys. For more than a century, Fraser Stryker has served the evolving needs of its clients by building a community of professionals of the highest caliber. The Firm’s practice areas include corporate, employee benefits, environmental, estate planning, litigation, technology, and telecommunications. Fraser Stryker attorneys are licensed to practice in several states and work abroad for international clients.
