

Keno Kozie Chosen as Workshare Alliance Partner

One of just a handful of exclusive partners

CHICAGO – November 6, 2009 – Keno Kozie, a leading provider of information technology design, service and support to law firms and legal departments, announces it recently was selected as a Workshare Alliance Partner. One of the key five national partners, Keno Kozie was selected because of its industry leadership, its ability to provide both sales and ongoing support, and its long partnership with Workshare.

Clients will benefit from Keno Kozie's increased access to the Workshare team, new product information and educational resources. Keno Kozie provides sales information, training, implementation and support for Workshare products. The company currently works with hundreds of clients who use Workshare.

"Keno Kozie has partnered with Workshare since 1999 because of the integrity and market leadership of the products they offer," said Sue Keno, Vice President of Keno Kozie. "We are pleased to be selected to this exclusive new group of partners so we can continue to sell and support these products among our clients."

Workshare provides technology solutions to legal professionals around the world. Customers rely on Workshare solutions to increase productivity and safeguard proprietary and confidential information; ultimately securing intellectual property, customer relationships and the organization's reputation. Workshare's document comparison, collaboration and security solutions provide risk management and security to more than 14,000 organizations worldwide.
